ESTIMATED NUMBER OF AWARDS: 4

PRIORITIES:

Invitational Priority:

✓ You can either establish this as part of the competitive priority ("We are the competitive preference priority for this competition for FY 2002, we are particularly...") or establish it standing alone ("We are particularly interested in...") Either way, place the competitive preference priority first, followed by the invitational priority.

The Assistant Secretary funds under this competition only applications that would provide vocational rehabilitation services to individuals with disabilities who are migrant or seasonal farmworkers, as determined in accordance with rules prescribed <sup>by</sup> the Secretary of Labor, and to the family members who are residing with <sup>those</sup> such individuals (whether or not <sup>those</sup> such family members are individuals with disabilities).

~~Applications for Projects <sup>that</sup> must provide vocational rehabilitation services <sup>including</sup> that would include, but ~~are~~ not limited to, vocational skills development, job placement, job~~

✓ This is stated previously as the purpose of the program.

✓ Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(1) we do not give an application that meets the priority a competitive or absolute preference over other applications.

training, occupational skills training programs, cultural awareness, language skills development, life skill<sup>5</sup> (e.g., health, education, socialization), English as<sup>a</sup> Second Language, dissemination of employment information<sup>1</sup> and training workshops.

Competitive Preference Priority:

~~Within the invitational priority for this competition for FY 2002,~~ this competition focuses on projects designed to meet the ~~competitive preference~~ priority in the notice of final competitive preference for this program, published in the Federal Register on November 22, 2000 (65 FR 70408). Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(2)(i) we award up to an additional 10 points to an application, depending on the extent to which the application meets the competitive preference priority. The maximum score under the selection criteria for this program is 100 points; however, we will also use the following competitive preference so that up to an additional 10 points may be earned by an applicant for a total possible score of 110 points.

← Up to 10 points may be earned based on the extent to which an application includes effective strategies for employing and advancing in employment

✓ You can't have a competitive priority with an invitational priority because a competitive preference is required & an invitational priority is not.
Switch these around - put the competitive priority first & have the invitational priority w/in it or standing alone.

Indent only 5 spaces

→ Wouldn't it be helpful to include the additional sentence of the priority as follows?
"In determining the effectiveness of those strategies, we will consider the applicant's prior success, as described in the application in employing and advancing in employment qualified individuals with disabilities." disabled.
